

DISH

DIABETES IN SCHOOL HEALTH

Diabetes in School Health Project ECHO is a monthly school diabetes health teleconferencing program for school nurses and school personnel who care for students with diabetes

Each ECHO session will have a 10-15 minute talk by a pediatric diabetes expert followed by 45-50 minutes of discussion of de-identified cases and questions to promote collaborative learning between school personnel in communities across the state.

- UPCOMING SESSIONS -

FREE CME

January 15th Diabetes Technology

February 19th Sickness and Diabetes

March 18th The Diabetes Rollercoaster: Highs & Lows

April 15th Psychosocial Adjustments

May 20th Legal Issues and Liability

TALK TO

SPECIALISTS

CONNECT WITH OTHER SCHOOLS

LOG ON FROM

ANYWHERE

TO JOIN OUR MAILING LIST PLEASE VISIT: <https://mailchi.mp/e2cd3183a0fa/dishsignup>

- CONNECT WITH DISH - diabetesinschoolhealth@gmail.com

@diabetes_dish

www.pediatrics.wisc.edu/dish/

WISCONSIN
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON